COLLECTOR WALSH ROUNDS UP FEDERAL TAX DELINQUENTS

The round-up of the delinquents and evaders of the special federal taxes in Connecticut which has been in progress for the past two months by the internal revenue bureau will probably end within a few days, and the forty men engaged in it will be paid off by the state.

The drive has been highly successful, due largely to the intensive way in which it was conducted. Collector James H. Walsh, of the district office, said that the result of the drive at many thousands of dollars and said that $1,100 due the revenue department had been collected from one theater as the result of the drive.

All dealers who are liable to a special tax are required by law to keep records of their business. In many of the cases which were investigated, no record had been kept and it was necessary for the investigator to use his ingenuity in setting the amount due. In this work the tables in possession of the revenue department being the number of ice cream cones and sundaes that can be secured from a gallon of ice cream were brought into play. Dealers were required to show their orders for ice cream for the period for which they were liable and the investigator then figured up what he thought the tax ought to be—and the dealer paid the tax and a fine for his failure to keep records.

The investigators also collected the war tax due on theater tickets and in these cases they had to estimate the amount of the tax. The dealer, according to their best judgment. Again the owner had to pay his tax on their figures. Several public service cars that had been running on the road without a tax to the government were also hauled up short. The force of forty men who have been working on the matter covered the city with what was practically a house to house canvass.

As soon as they complete the special tax work the men will be set to checking up on the income tax returns. The collectors are required to fill and send to the internal revenue department a form giving the names of all men to whom they pay more than $1,000 when the tax is income tax return is not filed by such a man the case is investigated. Where it is merely a case of ignorance the delinquent is required to pay his tax and a $5 fine in addition, but where the case is that of someone who apparently is committing a willful violation of the law, the collector is directed to hold the case for a prosecution.

Cocoanut Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisided cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can get for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of foam. The scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful.
